

Planes Need the Feminine Touch

Nursery schooler, Karen Mills, 5, hammers together 2 strips of wood for an airplane while consultant, Scott Truesdell, also 5, gives her a little technical advice. Looking on is Rodney Mills, of 1314 Kornblum, who attended Father's Day at the Torrance Cooperative nursery school. Nursery Education Week was observed by inviting the fathers to supervise the group of youngsters instead of the mothers that usually do the job under the guidance of Mrs. Myrtle Barter, Torrance Adult Education teacher.
